

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

ENTERCOM BOSTON, LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

TASTE-BOSTON & MAURA DOWNES,

Defendants.

Civil Action No: 05:11410-NMG

ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO POSTPONE SCHEDULING CONFERENCE

Plaintiff Entercom Boston, LLC ("Entercom") respectfully moves the Court to indefinitely postpone the Scheduling Conference now set for January 4, 2006, thereby suspending the parties' Local Rule 16.1 obligations.

As grounds for this motion, Entercom states:

1. On December 5, 2005, counsel of record for Defendants filed a motion to withdraw. That motion was unopposed by Entercom, and stated that Defendant Ms. Maura Downes, principal of co-Defendant Taste-Boston, intended to contact the plaintiff directly to settle the matter and instructed her counsel to take no further action;
2. Ms. Downes did shortly thereafter contact counsel for Entercom, Ms. Carmel Masi, Esq., and they reached a verbal settlement of this action pursuant to which the parties will be shortly filing a mutually satisfactory dismissal pleading;
3. Ms. Downes assented to the filing of this motion (Local Rule 7.1); and
4. Since the motion for withdrawal by Defendants' counsel is still pending, the undersigned further attempted to confer with Defendants' former counsel regarding this motion, but said counsel did not return the telephone call.

For the foregoing reasons, Entercom respectfully requests that the Court postpone the Scheduling Conference.
